MSB Observes Red Ribbon Week

Junior Class Project Helps Feed Hungry

MSB juniors Tabitha Jenkins and Amber Lacey coordinated a food drive that netted 221 pounds of canned and boxed foods as well as toiletry items. All donations were given to the St. Louis Area Foodbank, which used them to provide meals for 177 needy local residents. The St. Louis Area Foodbank operates in 26 counties in the metropolitan area. In 2010 it donated over 23 million pounds of food to needy families in the two-state area. Project sponsors were teachers Patti Schonlau and Sasi Ramesh.

The Good Work Rolls On!

The renovation and upgrade of MSB's bowling alley continues, thanks to members of the Bowling Proprietors Association and the St. Louis United Bowling Congress. The renovation, coordinated by MSB staffer Susan Bonner, includes "cosmic" lighting, graphics by Marquette H.S. art students, lane repair, new bowling balls and furniture.

Free Braille Books for Children

The Book Angel Program of Seedlings Braille Books for Children will provide two free Braille books each year to blind children in the U.S. and Canada. To register, go to the Seedlings site: <http://www.seedlings.org/bkangel2009.php>.

Seedlings is a non-profit organization dedicated to increasing the opportunity for literacy among blind and visually impaired children. It is supported by contributions from individuals, philanthropic groups, corporations and private foundations.

Conference Goalball Tourney Set for Nov. 4-6 in Wisconsin

The 2011 NCAASB Goalball championship meet will be held Nov. 4-6 at the Wisconsin School for the Blind and Visually Impaired.

In the first round Missouri boys will compete against Iowa boys. Missouri's girls will face off against Ohio.

Good luck to all!
